

House Resolution No. 4050

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always enjoy recognizing Show-Me State families whose genealogical histories illustrate an impressive family heritage that deserves to be celebrated; and

Whereas, the Twenty-fourth Annual Moore Family Reunion will begin on July 22, 2005, in the beautiful Callaway County town of Fulton, Missouri; and

Whereas, united in marriage on February 22, 1919, Joe Sam and Alberta Brown Moore made their home on a farm in the central Missouri community of Bluffton; and

Whereas, clay was discovered on the Moore family farm, and the money it generated was used to help feed and raise Joe and Alberta's fourteen children, one of whom died at birth; and

Whereas, Joe Sam died on January 8, 1991, with Alberta following him to the arms of the Lord shortly after on May 11, 1991; and

Whereas, Joe and Alberta Moore have nine surviving children, Helen Lucille Flying Cloud, Peggy Ruth Greer, Lewis Colleen Moore, Bonnie June Abney, Landon Barton Moore, Donque Deleon Moore, Betty Jo Guyton, Gloria Sue Washington, and Larry Eugene Moore; and

Whereas, Steve Moore and his father, Lewis Moore, are to be commended for hosting this year's reunion which will bring descendants from California, Illinois, Kansas, Maryland, Michigan, Washington, and all across Missouri; and

Whereas, one of the special events scheduled for the Moore Family Reunion will be a tour of the State Capitol Building in Jefferson City with a stop for treats at Central Dairy:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the Moore family whose impressive family history will be discussed, developed, and remembered once again during their annual reunion and to convey to them this legislative body's heartiest congratulations for the successful investment of time and effort that went into planning this year's gathering; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in recognition of the Twenty-fourth Annual Moore Family Reunion.
